The Greatest Journey is a service dedicated to helping people make their final transition. It is designed for all persons involved in the dying process: the individual, family members and friends. The Greatest Journey shows us that we can come to the end of a life with grace.

The Great Death Rites practiced by historic traditions allow us to understand the kind of psychological and emotional closure needed. They provide specific steps to bring both reconciliation and healing to the loved ones and to the person dying.

In this weekend you will learn the practical and tangible tools of a true friend.

This workshop offers you as a participant a direct experience of the Luminous Energy Field through practical exercises. You will experience the healing potential of a number of energy medicine tools during class. Later, this imbibed knowledge will be the strong foundation for you to be able to assist a loved one through their greatest transition.
